ACE Booth #420

Collectible, candy-themed dry erase message boards allow M&M's and Skittles fans to share their passion for select colors of the popular candies. The boards also serve as party favors. They come with matching pens that are topped with handy erasers. They're available to retailers in a 12-pack display or a master case, which has six displays, at a retail price of $3.99.
